

Meet Bethany Hill

Bethany Hill has been an educator for 22 years and considers herself a teacher who has filled many roles. Her experience includes teaching grades one, two and three; instructional coaching; literacy trainer for her district; assistant principal; and principal. She is currently the assistant principal at Magness Creek Elementary in Cabot, Arkansas. Bethany is the founder of #JoyfulLeaders, a hashtag that promotes positivity and encouragement among educators and is one of the originators of #EduAR, a Twitter chat focusing on trending topics in education. Her passions and speaking engagement topics include: school culture, whole child mindset, scientifically based reading instruction, trauma informed practices and social emotional learning. You can connect with Bethany on Twitter @bethhill2829, Instagram, @joyfulleaders, or her Facebook page, Inspiration for Educators. You can also read her #JoyfulLeaders blog posts and follow the movement at www.bethanyhill.com (Learning & Leading).
